REPEAL SIDETRACKED FOR RAILROAD BILL

Washington, February 22.—With repeal sidetracked for the second time in the senate tomorrow there was some uncertainty as to when the tariff-repeal fight would be actually resumed. After the plan of the leaders, the repeal would be brought up and as the senate has acted to expedite legislation, especially early in the week. There has been considerable pressure for early consideration of tariff repeal and it was $1,200. L. Liebman also subscribed $1,000.

It was announced that the Eagle Social club had given $1,400 and was preparing to raise more. The council of Jewish Women and the Temple Sisterhood gave a joint subscription of $800. Mr. and Mrs. L. Mendelsohn contributed $750 and Bodenheimer Bros. gave a similar amount. The Young Woman's Hebrew club gave $450 and several clubs of Jewish children gave subscriptions ranging from $25 to $100.

After the larger subscriptions were announced the smaller amounts began coming in and the committee called out a long list of names of contributors of amounts usually famous for her wonderful dancing, is the star in the new Paramount feature, "The Amateur Wife," at the Egyptian the first three days of this week. "The Amateur Wife" is a sparkling story of New York life, and portrays how a little country bred girl went to the big city and showed 'em all how to spend up. There's a good love story running through the picture that has seldom been equaled upon the screen. The current issue of the Burton Holmes Travelogue, and the new Klugegram Weekly will also be shown.

Tom Mix.

(At the Strand.)

Big Tom Mix comes to the Strand today for a week's run in a special feature production entitled "The Fool." This is a new kind of a picture for Mr. Mix, and critics everywhere pronounce it the best thing he has done in months. The story centers around a food business (no first mountain climb, with a wonderful love story running throughout. On the same bill with Mr. Mix, the management explained by Fay Arden Best "One Flight Up." Edith Brown has the principal feminine role of a powerful little drama, of more winning and thrilling with a distinct and remarkable climax.

Miss Heaven has the role of Mollie Burnham, a sweet and innocent young girl, who is led, by a mistake, into a party of the ultra-fast set. She has an awful time getting home and the play lacks nothing of the dramatic, while it is tremendously amusing.

Florence Merrill and Gaby Bredewell, talented singers in "Hits of Mirth and Melody." Creators, Barton and Spurling, the "Top Notch Trio of Fun and Laughter," the Dancing Kennedy and Peitard, eccentric juggler, complete a remarkable bill with Paths News, Yarn Tattler and a Pathé Revue for the pictorial program.

Retail Meat Must Reduce Or Open Th

Chicago, Feb. 22.—Retail meat dealers today by their refusal to voluntarily curb prices must submit their appeals for tariff reductions.

This submission must include a report by attached associations to the tariff board. In a week the tariff board will be back in session.

his appeal for the suffering members of his race in the countries where they face starvation, was a most eloquent one. He called upon the Atlanta Jews to arise to the occasion, and to contribute to the emergency fund in order that the lives of six millions of Jewish people may be saved. Mr. Rusland briefly pictured the conditions that prevail in the European countries in which the Jews are oppressed, and said that in view of the dire need of those people the members of the race who live under the
